

7 Continents for One Robotnik

Disclaimer: I don't own Sonic The Hedgehog & co since Sega/Sonic Team owns that. DiC Entertainment owns Scratch, Grounder, Professor Caninestein and Wes Weasley. Nintendo owns Mario & Luigi. The only characters I own are the world leaders (apart from Up Dike and Bert Who, DiC owns them) and two bit characters.

Author's note: When I had a look around here, most Sonic stories were based on Archie Sonic, Sega Sonic or SatAM Sonic. However there were only a few stories based AoSTH (Adventures of Sonic The Hedgehog) so might as well start there. Yes, the Sonic Says segment would still be there. Plz note that there are no love relationships in this story, just classic action and comic relief.

It was a bright day in Mobius (as always) at Robotnik's fortress, which was a stereotypical lair on a mountaintop with a giant golden Robotnik statue next to it. Inside lived a deranged mid 40s scientist called Dr. Ivo Robotnik who was largely built. He had one long orange moustache and his head was shaped like a cone.

Dr. Robotnik is tapping his foot, impatiently in his office waiting for information. He is looking at his watch that had his moustaches as the hour and the minute hands. The watch was 3 o'clock.

Robotnik muttered himself: "Gee, how long does it take to catch Sonic? I would have done a better job myself." Ivo had one wish, which was to rule Mobius and capture Sonic the Hedgehog.

Suddenly a clanging noise was heard outside his door. The door opens, a beakless Scratch with crosses around his metal body and a backwards head Grounder rushing towards Robotnik. Scratch was a tall chicken robot and the smartest of the SSSSS Squad. Grounder, his sidekick was short, tank-like robot who was very stupid. Ivo looks very angry.

Robotnik shouted: "You bumbling idiots! You can never capture Sonic and it was so simple. If I wasn't your creator, you would be in the trash heap!" Scratch moves Grounder's head the right way up, Grounder puts Scratch's beak on and Scratch coughs. The two robots are now fully assembled.

Scratch was trying to avoid being shouted by saying, "Oh your angriness, it was Grounder's fault that we failed". His partner Grounder denied, "Nuh-huh, it was Scratch's fault."

Robotnik picks up a nearby metal bolt and throws it at Grounder since he is furious about the failure to catch Sonic. Grounder shouted in pain, "Ow, that hurts."

Robotnik has calmed down and he is laughing since he has a plan up his sleeve. Quickly his tone changed from being harsh to an understanding mood. Robotnik whispered to the robots, "Scratch? Grounder?"

Scratch & Grounder looked puzzled and said in unison, "Yes?"

Robotnik eyes were turning red and he is now furious, like an elastic band. "You are FIRED! FINISHED! From now on I would take over Mobius, besides I would tell you my plan if you don't whine about your jobs", Robotnik shouted.

Scratch & Grounder were both shocked. Scratch spoke, "Okay, what ever you say, boss."

"I'm listening", Grounder responded.

Robotnik pulls a large map of Mobius with oceans and lands all over the place. "In Mobius, there are 7 continents around the planet." Grounder was scratching his head and replied, "I didn't know that."

"You do now. Each one of them continents has a leader, which I would take over, and rule Mobius with"; Robotnik spoke. Scratch asked, "Who are they?" "You just said one!" Robotnik replied back.

Grounder is scratching his head yet again and looking puzzled, "Huh?" he muttered. Robotnik was annoyed and replied, "Bert Who of Mobius Quarters is one of the leaders, you dumb-bot!" Scratch is starting to become impatient, "Oh, now name the other 6 leaders."

Robotnik lifted his finger as he was about to open his mouth, Scratch, Grounder and the Eggman huddled together like in an American Football game and whispered, "All wright listen, they are..."

Koala Mint of Down Under Mobius
Sushi Oatmeal of Mobisan
Humpfrey Camel of Dessert Oasis
Mouser Cheese of Eurobius
Up Dike Rabbit of Ice Cap Zone
and finally, Bongo Bongo Ape of South Quarters.

Scratch looked cheerful and asked Robotnik, "Got it. Hey doc, would it be easier to take over the real world?" Robotnik thought for a couple minutes and bellowed, "Excellent Scratch, I knew building you paid off. You two have just got your jobs back."

Scratch was pointing his finger towards himself and laughed, "I'm his favorite. Bahahahah!" Grounder furiously said, "Nope, I'm his favorite." Ignoring Grounder, Scratch questioned, "Screw it, would you take over the other leaders another day? Like next Tuesday?"

Robotnik gloated, "Hee hee hee by taking over Earth, that meddlesome hedgehog will never get me." Afterwards Robotnik left the list of Mobian leaders on his notice board, ready to be used again for another mission.

Somewhere in the light green place of Mobius, Sonic is speeding along and his buddy Tails is flying down a straight path when Sonic hits a curly Q tree. "Ouch!" Sonic yelled.

Tails flew down and landed on the ground. The brown two tailed fox warned, "Sonic, you should have looked on where you was going." Sonic hurtfully replied, "I know keed, but there's something weird going on."

Tails lifted his hands with shock, "What's that, Sonic?" Sonic shook his head and said, "That Robuttnik hasn't attacked a village, kidnapped you or setting some trap for me." Tails is about to state the obvious, "Yeah, maybe he gave up?" "I doubt it bud", Sonic replied back.

Back in Robotnik's fortress, Robotnik has made a Trans-kinetic Teleporter that looked like a TV remote with levers but it only works in his Egg-O-Matic Hovercraft. Robotnik puts it in and Grounder changes his drill hands to proper hands and pulled Robotnik's belly. "Who's coming to the real world?"

Grounder let go of Egg Belly and his hands changed back to drills. "Me, you duh-bots and Wes", Robotnik happily replied back.

Scratch & Grounder was surprised, "Wes?"

A guy with an orange trench coat comes from nowhere, that is Wes Weasley, the most famous salesman in Mobius. Wes cheerily smiled, "That's right palsy. I heard in Earth, there are lots of shopping channels so I might as well go. Maybe I sell something this time."

Robotnik was has surprised as the robots, "Nice to see you, Weasley. What company are you with now?" he asked Wes. "JBWK Inc." the salesman replied back. Grounder asked, "Err. What do they sell?"

Wes and Scratch closing into each other and the weasel whispers, "Listen, I'm not supposed to tell you this but they sell everything but screwdrivers, Sonic traps and chilli dogs. They are based in Metropolis City." Scratch then crosses his arms and faces the other way and jealously replied, "No Sonic traps? Why bother?"

Robotnik plans, "If I rule Earth, Wes can have 90% of the cable transmissions except FOX. That's mine!" "Good thing Wes doesn't watch two tailed foxes", Grounder stupidly said.

Wes is happy that he gets to have 90% of the TV networks; with no patience he roared out, "At last, where do I sign?" Robotnik gives Wes with a piece of paper that has lots of scribbles on it, "Here, here, here and put a Z over that."

Wes signs the contract as Robotnik shakes his hands and they all dash out towards the edge of Robotnik's fortress. The evil genius, the robots and the salesman stop as they approach the Egg-O-Matic Hovercraft. Wes couldn't believe his eyes at the sight and how much money he would make on eBay. Robotnik & co soon jump in which makes a creaking noise. "Let's go, everyone. Next stop, Earth. Muhahhahha!" Robotnik gloated.

Sonic and Tails at the time was running down Dessert Oasis which was a typical desert with cacti and cherries on top of the sand dunes when they both stopped which made a screeching sound. Sonic looks up has he saw a big fat round object.

Sonic asked Tails, "Time out. Hey keed, do you think that's Robumnik?" "What do you think Sonic?" Tails sarcastically replied. Sonic was determined to get even with Robotnik, "That Eggbelly doesn't know when to quit. We should follow him." The heroic duo then follows Robotnik's Egg-o-Matic Hovercraft.

While in the Egg-o-Matic, it seems there wasn't enough room. Grounder yelled, "Ow! Scratch stop poking me nooose!" "That 's if you stop stamping on my toes." Scratch angrily replied.

Wes cheerful answered back while squinting his eyes, "Sorry Scratch, I'm just excited that I have all the shopping channels ready to air." Scratch, Grounder and Wes calmed down as a vibration was felt.

Robotnik starts the initiation process for the Trans-kinetic Teleporter, "All right folks, Grounder press the red button", he bellowed. "Do I have to?" Grounder hopelessly replied. At his top of his voice, Robotnik shouted, "YES!" Grounder presses the red button that then lighted up, "Okay. The red button has been pressed."

Robotnik ordered, "Scratch, set course for Brooklyn" as he pointed directly to the chicken robot. Scratch then responded, "Lever set to Brooklyn, your supremeness." Since then the display on the Trans-kinetic Teleporter came up with a countdown has Robotnik & company wait. "3, 2, 1 and engage", Robotnik quickly replied.

Suddenly Dr. Robotnik's Egg-o-Matic Hovercraft disappears into nowhere. Tails' jaw dropped as the Egg-o-matic just vanished. Tails asked, "Sonic, did you see that? Robotnik's flying thing has gone!" Sonic was scratching his head trying to figure why, "This is strange, how could he disappear? Oh well, might has well see a professor."

Tails asks again since the duo must find a way how Robotnik's ship vanished, "Which one? Caninestein or Von Schlemmer?" "I just don't know keed, but whatever it is Robotnik's causing trouble", Sonic said as he is currently bamboozled why Robotnik disappeared?

Was it just to please the Mobians? Would Robotnik become attached to Brooklyn? Find out soon.

End of Chapter 1.

Dr. Robotnik, the SSSSS Squad (Scratch & Grounder) and Wes arrive at Brooklyn. For people who haven't been to Brooklyn, it's in a region inside New York, with sights such as the Brooklyn Bridge, the only plant in Flatbush and yellow cabbies. The Egg-o-Matic Hovercraft then crashes onto the Statue of Liberty and falls down in a comical Wile E. Coyote fashion. The Egg-o-Matic is in complete ruins and so are Robotnik's lackeys. Wes and Robotnik are full of dust that patting their clothes somehow removes the thick dust. "Bad landing huh", yelped Scratch.

The dynamic duo has to reassemble them while Robotnik is pulling a map of the world from his deep black trouser pocket.

Robotnik: Listen, you metal clunkers. There are 7 Continents on Earth; the one we are at is called North America.

Grounder: How did you find that out?

Robotnik: Well, I knew someone back then ... Nevermind, we have 6 more to conquer by supper time.

Wes: I'm off to conquer the shopping market.

Robotnik: Hold on Wes, there's a bigger fish to fry. See NBC? That is the biggest cable channel next to FOX, which I may add will be owned by me.

Wes: Wow! One large channel. Do I get the other channels?

Robotnik gloated, "Of course, Weasley."

Scratch: What about us, your knowingness?

Robotnik: I'm going to have a walk round Flatbush first, then I would get to Washington and rule North America. You two would go to annihilate the Australian Prime Minister; he's much easier than Sonic.

Scratch & Grounder: We never let you down, sir.

Robotnik: They are going to let me down as usual. I'm just going for a little stroll.

The viewer then sees Robotnik walking down a street facing left, whistling. Robotnik then walks past Mario who the dictator bumps into.

Mario: Why that greedy fat man bumping into me. I would show him.

Luigi rushes to Mario

Luigi: It's okay Mario; forget about it. Hey you need to stop Koopa from stealing the Pipe Land Treasury.

Mario: You are not gonna get away with this, Robotnik.

Luigi: How did he know his name?

Luigi's arms shrug in disbelief; maybe Mario might have some answers. Mario joyfully answered, "I just do. Now to go back to the Mushroom Kingdom." Luigi was frightened, "I wanna stay here in Brooklyn, eat pasta and to give Salvador Drainado his dollar back."

The plumbing brothers both enter a warp pipe, with Mario grabbing Luigi's hands so he doesn't let go. A sound effect similar to the Super Mario Bros games were heard when the plumbers enter the pipe.

Back in Mobius, Sonic is thinking quite hard to get to Earth but his finger points up as he thought of an idea.

Sonic: Let's see Professor Caninestein, maybe he can help us.

Tails: Yeah, that guy would know about Robotnik's disappearance.

Sonic: I'm up, over and gone!

Sonic and Tails speed off. Then they meet outside a mountain that is where Caninestein is now hiding, Sonic knocks on the wall.

Caninestein (v.o.): Coming.

Sonic stamps with his feet obviously getting bored.

Sonic: I'm waaaaaiiiittttiiiiingggg!

Suddenly a dog like professor came out who wore a white lab coat to a caving on the mount. Sonic stops tapping.

Caninestein: Why if it isn't Sonic and his best buddy Tails? Do come in.

Sonic and Tails follow Caninestein to his lab with all sorts of machines.

Sonic: I need your help professor; Tails and I saw Robotnik disappear into lardy air.

Caninestein: I see. Right Sonic, I have a feeling that Robotnik went to the real world.

Sonic: That Eggman, that's gonna be awful. If he takes over that world, we are all doomed. Wait, that doesn't sound like me. Oh well.

Caninestein: That is why I made this machine. It's called a Dimension Hopper, you would use this to get into the real world.

Tails: That's great Doc.

Caninestein: I think you meant professor.

Tails: Sorry.

Sonic: Tails didn't know, ok?

Caninestein: At this world, there are nice pieces of tender beef jerky that I want you to get.

Sonic: Okay professor. Tails, you would have to grab my arm for this.

Sonic and Tails vanish into thin air and reappeared in Brooklyn.

In Australia, Scratch & Grounder are in the Prime Minister's office shaking the PM up.

Scratch: Give this land to our leader, Dr. Robotnik.

Grounder is armed with a blaster and looks sinister.
Grounder: Yeah!

The Aussie Prime Minister looked like a stereotypical Australian, with the Crocodile Dundee hat on his head. On his hand was a can of Foster's Lager that he was drinking at the time. "G'day mate, I give ya this fine land if ya let me go and I'll give ya some of the 4 X."

Scratch: Never.

Aussie PM: I give up. You win robots Oz is yours.

Scratch & Grounder: Now we can both tell Dr. Robotnik.

Grounder's belly is rumbling so he opens it up after his drill changes to hands.
Grounder picks up the phone.

Grounder: Hello, who is this?

Robotnik: It's me Robotnik, you battery brains.

Grounder: Err. I've got Australia.

Scratch: Don't you mean I have Australia, Grounder?

Robotnik: Shut up both of you, I have Oz. Now Scratch, go to Europe and take over that union. Grounder, you go to Asia.

Scratch: Sounds fine to me.

Grounder: Same here.

Robotnik: Right we only have one at the moment. Make sure you conquer Europe and Asia within 2 hours. Got it?

Scratch & Grounder: Yes, Dr Robotnik.

Scratch: Wait a minute; it takes more than 2 hours to get to Europe.

Robotnik: Well, you better hurry up then.

Robotnik puts the phone down, he is at a phone booth in Washington DC. Behind him is the Lincoln Monument. "Now to take over North America", he gloated.

Robotnik then arrives at the front door of the White House and he presses the door bell.

Door bell: Ding- dong.

The US President comes out wearing a suit, Robotnik is taking out his blaster.

US President: Hello fine sir, and welcome to the White House. May I help you?

Robotnik: In a matter of fact, yes. I want to take over North America.

US President: Y'll can't do that.

Robotnik: I can. I've got a blaster right here. So give up or else you will be annihilated.

US President: I give up.

Robotnik: Excellent.

Robotnik is now at the president desk in the White House. Robotnik is laughing like a manic and is now wearing a presidential suit.

End of Act 1

Act 2

Scratch is in at Strasbourg where the head of the European Union is; he sets a trap that says Free Food in 6 different languages. All the European leaders arrive and talking (in muffles).

Scratch: This trap better work.

All the leaders are going towards Scratch, ready to falling into a trap. Scratch is shouting; "Free food, get your free food here."

The viewer can see a close up of a German leader which has the German flag on his suit.

German Leader: Free food, where?

Scratch is pointing towards an open door. All the leaders dash towards the door and Scratch then slams the door shut. The viewer can hear shouting from the leaders.

Scratch: I guess Europe is all Robotnik's now. Bahhawhawhah!

Sonic arrives in Brooklyn but however everyone's looking at him. A young girl screamed; "Agghh! A talking blue hedgehog."

Tails: Sonic, I think we look a bit out of place.

Sonic: Good idea, kid. We need some costumes stat.

Sonic goes off screen and returns with some costumes. Sonic looks like a business man while Tails now looks like a kid.

Sonic: That solved our problem. Now we need to find Robuttnik.

Tails is pointing towards a TV screen.

Tails: There he is, look.

Sonic looks shocked, it was Wes Weasley has a newscaster.

Wes: Good afternoon and welcome to NBC News. Sorry about this, I prefer shopping channels but what the heck. Dr. Robotnik has now taken over North America and he has this to say.

Robotnik is behind the presidential desk and looks happy.

Robotnik: Hello my public, this is your new leader Dr Ivo Robotnik speaking.

Man (v.o): He's a communist!

Man 2 (v.o): Shut up.

Robotnik: I have some good news, tax is increasing to 120% and you must pay it all otherwise you go to jail. Thank you.

Close up of Sonic with his head up.

Sonic: I better stop Robotnik from taking over the world, which is what he looks like he's doing.

Robotnik is still in his office and his phone rings. He picks it up.

Robotnik: Who is this?

Scratch (v.o): Your imperialness, you now have Europe in your hands.

Robotnik: That's good. This day is getting better and better. Hold the line.

The phone is flashing on No. 2 and Ivo presses it.

Robotnik: What's your name?

Grounder is at some city in Asia.

Grounder: Dr. Robotnik. I... I meant you now have Asia.

Robotnik: As Koopa once said; this is Kooprific.

Grounder: Who's Koopa?

Robotnik None of your business.
Grounder: Okay.

Now the viewer can see the United Nations building which is zoomed inside. All the world leaders have their fists up with angry.

The UN leader: We all have one problem. There's this man called Ivo Robotnik who is taking over the world, piece by piece.

Brazilian leader: Never heard of him. What should we do?

UN leader: There's nothing we can do.

The UN secretary comes in looking anxious.

UN secretary: Bad news, Robotnik has took over nearly all 7 Continents.

Back at Robotnik's office another phone call has been made he picks it up.

Robotnik: Well, WHAT DO YOU WANT?

UN leader (v.o.): We give up; you are too powerful to stop us. You can officially rule the world. Have a nice day.

Robotnik puts the phone down and gloating.

Robotnik: Good thing I built other robots to protect each and every one of my continents.

In Brooklyn, Sonic is running about when he sees a newspaper, he picks it up and it says;

IVO ROBOTNIK< EXTREME DICTATOR

Sonic: According to this Tails, Scratch is still in Europe.

Tails: How did you know?

Sonic: It says here that a long chicken robot is currently looking after Europe. Let's stop their world domination, shall we?

Tails: Yeah!

As the heroic duo leave Brooklyn at the other side of America (in Northridge, California to be accurate), teenager Kevin Keene was watching some TV before going back to his dated NES console. He was switching over channels then he stopped at a particular show, which on his TV screen was Wes Weasley, promoting a new product.

Wes promoted, "Now for 129.99 is this latest games machine, the Super Nintendo Entertainment System or SNES for short. Beautiful graphics and amazing sounds, you might throw your old Master Systems, NESs or even Genesises away. Featuring Super Mario, Castlevania, Super Punch-Out! And even Mega Man X." Wes then quickly responded, "Games sold separately."

Kevin's eyes were glued to the TV screen like a dog stares at ham but also he is crying. He would miss Pit (or Kid Icarus), Mega Man and his beautiful girl that he met in Video Land called Princess Lana. However Kevin would be glad to miss Eggplant Wizard, King Hippo and Mother Brain (the villains) has he is prepared to order his brand new SNES.

Away from America, Sonic and Tails arrive at the Strasbourg building. They are walking down a dark brown corridor when Scratch sees Sonic.

Scratch: It's the hedgehog; since Grounder isn't here I would get the credit.

Scratch is chasing Sonic around the building when Sonic reaches the place where the EU leaders have been trapped. Sonic slows down while his sneakers are on fire and tries to cool them down. Sonic then leaped towards the front of the trapped door.

Sonic: I stand right here so you can catch me.

Scratch is running towards the door, as Sonic quickly moves from his position to the left. Scratch hits the door and all the leaders in Europe start hurting the cluck bot.

Scratch: Ow. Ow. OW!

Sonic: Next stop, Asia.

Tails: All right Sonic.

Sonic is now near some Chinese temple facing Grounder.

Sonic: Hey Grounder, let's see if you can get me.

Grounder: Oh no! It's Sonic.

Grounder chases Sonic but Grounder crashes right on the Great Wall of China.

Grounder: Next time I would land somewhere else.

Sonic and Tails are close up.

Sonic: Right, 2 down and 5 to go.

The viewer quickly sees Sonic pulling a large brown robot in Africa and he collapses.

Sonic: That's Robotnik for ya.

Then Sonic and Tails is in Antarctica chasing a Polar Bear robot but he gets tired.

Tails comes and punches the Polar Bear which then dismantled.

Next the heroic duo arrives at South America with a dancing robot during the Rio carnival. The robot is dancing but Sonic gets out an oilcan and sprays it on the ground that the robot slips and breaks.

Sonic: Now to Australia, do you think MacHopper would like it?

Back in Australia, Sonic arrives at the PM's house on which Sonic searches every room and finds the leader gagged up. Sonic takes the gag and spins the PM around until all the rope has been removed.

Aussie PM: Thanks, whatever you are. Since you set me free, you can have some 4X and some Foster's.

Sonic: That would come in handy.

Tails: What do you mean?

Sonic: We make Robotnik so drunk that no one would believe him.

The viewer returns to Robotnik's office sitting down comfortably when the doorbell rings.

Robotnik: I get it. Do I have to? Of course, I'm a President.

Robotnik dashes to the front doorway. A green uniformed militant is there and winks at the camera.

Sonic: Err.. Are you Ivo Robotnik?

Robotnik looks stunned. Tails is laughing quietly.

Robotnik: What do you want?

Sonic: By orders of the US rules and order book, each leader must drink this.

Sonic gets out a bottle of 4X.

Robotnik: Let's try it.

Robotnik drinks a bottle.

Sonic: Come on, that wasn't enough. 12 bottles would do the trick.

Robotnik drinks all 12 bottles and falls to the ground. Sonic kicks Robotnik's posterior.

Sonic: Wouldn't you mind if you kicked him a bit.

Tails: My pleasure.

Tails kicks Robotnik, while the egg man screams "ow" all the way though. Robotnik gets up.

Robotnik: I (hic) hate that (hic) hedgehog.

All over the world people were cheering. Sonic and Tails stand on the podium which is in front of the White House while the president awards Sonic and Tails gold medals. Sonic and Tails both bow down.

Sonic: Now this is living.

As soon as Sonic said that, Mario & Luigi who were background characters clapped Sonic while Tails put on "Working For A Living" by Huey Lewis that appeared in Plumber's Academy, an episode of Super Mario Bros Super Show! However Sonic quickly switch it off, as he was bowing down to the President. Finally Sonic winked to Tails while Robotnik was hiccupping.

Fade out. End of Episode.
